INTRODUCTION

WE send out "Jubilant Praise" with the earnest prayer that its use may bring into all our devotional meetings the spirit expressed in its name.

The cause we represent is a conquering cause; and, when we gather for praise and prayer, the spirit of our service should be inspiring and uplifting. We believe that the use of "Jubilant Praise" will ensure this result.

"Jubilant Praise" is the result of more than twenty-five years' experience in Sunday schools, Christian Endeavor meetings, and conventions on the part of the editor and compilers.

It embodies the suggestions of a host of Christian workers, who speak from experience and not from theory.

We invite special attention to the Responsive Services prepared by Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D. The use of these services will promote the devotional spirit, introduce a spirit of freedom, and create an atmosphere that will make general participation in the meetings easier and more natural.

"O, sing unto the Lord a new song."

"Praise ye the Lord."

"I will praise Thee with my whole heart."

1. Some-bod-y did a gold-en deed, Proving him-self a friend in need;
2. Some-bod-y tho't 'tis sweet to live, Will-ing-ly said, "I'm glad to give;"
3. Some-bod-y made a lov-ing gift, Cheer-ful-ly tried a load to lift;
4. Some-bod-y i-dled all the hours, Care-less-ly crushed life's fair-est flow'rs;
5. Some-bod-y filled the days with light, Con-stant-ly chased a-way the night;

Some-bod-y sang a cheer-ful song, Bright'ning the skies the whole day long,—
Some-bod-y fought a val-iant fight, Brave-ly he lived to shield the right,—
Some-bod-y told the love of Christ, Told how his will was sac-ri-ficed,—
Some-bod-y made life loss, not gain, Tho't-less-ly seemed to live in vain,—
Some-bod-y's work bore joy and peace, Sure-ly his life shall nev-er cease,—

Was that some-bod-y you? Was that some-bod-y you?

2. O Light that followest all my way, I yield my flickering torch to Thee;

I give Thee back the life I owe, That in Thine o-ccean depths its flow
My heart restores its bor-rowed ray, That in Thy sun-shine's glow its day

3 O Joy that seekest me through pain,
I cannot close my heart to Thee;
I trace the rainbow through the rain,
And feel the promise is not vain
That morn shall tearless be.

4 O cross that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to hide from Thee:
I lay in dust life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red
Life that shall endless be.

May rich-er ful-ler be.
May brighter fair-er be.

1. Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer, That calls me from a world of care,

And bids me, at my Father's throne, Make all my wants and wishes known!
D.S.—And oft escaped the tempter's snare, By thy re-turn, sweet hour of prayer.

In sea-sons of dis-tress and grief, My soul has oft-en found re-lief,

2 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer,
The joys I feel, the bliss I share,
Of those whose anxious spirits burn
With strong desires for thy return!
With such I hasten to the place
Where God, my Savior, shows His face,
And gladly take my station there,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

3 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer,
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To Him, whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless:
And since He bids me seek His face,
Believe His word, and trust His grace,
I'll cast on Him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

DEVOTIONAL SERVICES

SELECTED AND EDITED BY

REV. FRANCIS E. CLARK, D.D.

Reading No. 1

Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

Silent prayer for the realization of God's presence, closed by repeating the following Bible prayer:

ALL. — Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Cleanse thou me from secret faults. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Singing, No. 173, "I've found a Friend."

O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful

THE PRESENCE OF GOD

for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

ALL. — How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

ALL. — In thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

*Singing, No. 195, "Abide with me."
A prayer-hymn for Christ's presence.*

The Invitation

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come.

And let him that heareth say, Come.

And let him that is athirst come.

ALL. — And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Singing, No. 57, "Christ Receiveth Sinful Men."

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.

Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,

"Come unto me and rest;

Lay down, thou weary one, lay down Thy head upon my breast:"

I came to Jesus as I was,

Weary, and worn, and sad;

I found in him a resting-place,

And he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,

"Behold, I freely give

The living water! thirsty one,

Stoop down, and drink, and live."

I came to Jesus, and I drank

Of that life-giving stream:

My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,

And now I live in him.

Singing, No. 71, "Softly and tenderly."

Our Responsibility

Am I my brother's keeper?

So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thy hand.

Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

He which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

He that winneth souls is wise. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever.

A BIBLE PRAYER

(To be repeated by all.)

Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation; and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Singing, No. 18, "Nobody Told Me of Jesus."

SEEKING THE LOST SHEEP

(To be read by all in unison.)

What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly.

Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters.

He that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal, that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

ALL.—For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.

Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth.

And having on the breastplate of righteousness.

And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And take the helmet of salvation.

And the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.

THE ARMOR OF GOD

Singing, No. 179, "Stand up for Jesus."

A BIBLE PRAYER

(To be repeated by all.)

In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness. Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me. For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me. O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause. Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day. Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindness; for they have been ever of old.

THE REWARD OF "ENDURING TO THE END"

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day.

“Confession Unto Salvation”

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

A few moments devoted to sentence prayers for strength and courage to confess Christ at all times.

Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation;

Of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.

But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

“EVERY TONGUE SHALL CONFESS”

As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

For we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

ALL.—If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us.

Singing, No. 53, “Entire Consecration.”

WHY WE SHOULD CONSECRATE OURSELVES

Consecrate yourselves to-day to the Lord, that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

The Lord our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Ye are not your own. For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

And be not conformed to this world.

But be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

Thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my Lord the King shall appoint.

CONSECRATION

HOW WE SHOULD CONSECRATE OURSELVES

Who, then, is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the Lord?

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee.

Be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.

Take my moments and my days, Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.

Take my hands, and let them move At the impulse of thy love.

Ponder the path of thy feet.

Take my feet, and let them be

Swift and beautiful for thee.

Sing unto the Lord, O ye saints of his.

Take my voice, and let me sing

Always, only, for my King.

Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from thee.

Whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it an offering of the Lord: gold, and silver, and brass.

Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold.

Bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.

Take my intellect, and use
Every power as thou shalt choose.
Not my will, but thine be done.

Take my will, and make it thine,

It shall be no longer mine.

Give me thine heart.

Take my heart, it is thine own,

It shall be thy royal throne.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

Take my love, my Lord, I pour

At thy feet its treasure-store.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Take myself, and I will be

Ever, only, all for thee.

PENITENCE AND PARDON

A Call to Penitence

Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Singing, No. 89, "Even me."

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

A BIBLE PRAYER

(To be repeated by all.)

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me. Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight:

That thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

THE BLESSEDNESS OF PRAYER

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer.

I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

PRAYER

Singing, No. 167, "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

What profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

Pray without ceasing. In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

A LESSON WITH CHRIST IN THE SCHOOL OF PRAYER

When thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are:

For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet,

And when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do:

For they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them; for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

After this manner therefore pray ye:

ALL, with bowed heads, unite in repeating the Lord's Prayer.

FRUIT-BEARING

Abiding in Christ Necessary

I am the true vine and my Father is the husbandman.

Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away. And every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

I am the vine, ye are the branches.

He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit. For without me ye can do nothing.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

Singing, No. 1, "Somebody."

"BY THEIR FRUITS YE SHALL KNOW THEM"

Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

The works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like. . . . But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance.

Prayer by the leader.

"Serve the Lord With Gladness"

ALL.—Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

Singing, No. 41, "Keep the heart singing."

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek;

He hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn.

To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads:

They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. And your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

fraught,

Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

Chorus

He leadeth me, he leadeth me,
By his own hand he leadeth me;
His faithful follower I would be,
For by his hand he leadeth me.

ness; make thy way straight before

Give ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation.

Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Let them praise the name of the Lord: for he commanded, and they were created.

Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl:

Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth:

Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:

Let them praise the name of the Lord: for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

THE LAW OF TITHES

All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the Lord's: it is holy unto the Lord.

Of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

We give thee but thine own,

Whate'er the gift may be:

All that we have is thine alone,

A trust, O Lord, from thee.

May we thy bounties thus,

As stewards true receive,

And gladly, as thou blessest us,

To thee our first-fruits give.

THE BLESSEDNESS OF GIVING

Remember the words of the Lord
Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, to receive it.

and with the first-fruits of all thine increase.

plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

Making wise the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right,

Rejoicing the heart.

The commandment of the Lord is pure,

Enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean,

Enduring forever.

The judgments of the Lord

Are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold; yea than much fine gold.

Sweeter also than honey and the

And in keeping of them there is great reward.

A BIBLE PRAYER

(To be repeated by all.)

Open thou mine eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end.

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

Incline my heart unto thy testimonies,
and not to covetousness.

Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Stablish thy word unto thy servant,
who is devoted to thy fear.

THE BLESSEDNESS OF KEEPING GOD'S LAW

Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. THE HOLY SPIRIT

A few moments of silent prayer for the presence of the Spirit.

"THE PROMISE OF MY FATHER"

I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground; I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring.

And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth.

Behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

THE PROMISE FULFILLED

ALL.—And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

THE COMFORTER

The Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance whatsoever I have said unto you.

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you.

FELLOWSHIP IN THE EARLY CHURCH

(To be read by the leader.)

Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

And all that believed were together, and had all things common; and sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

O let the gospel sound
All the wide world around,
Wherever man is found:
God speed his word.

Reading No. 19

How sweet are thy words to my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God!

CHRIST FOR THE WORLD

Hail, blessed jubilee:

Thine, Lord, the glory be;

Hallelujah!

Thine was the mighty plan,

From thee the work began;

Away with praise of man,

Glory to God!

OUR COMMISSION

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

THE WORLD CHRIST'S INHERITANCE

ALL. — Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Singing, No. 170, "All hail the power of Jesus' name."

THE BIBLE

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way?

By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Quicken thou me, according to thy word. The entrance of thy words giveth light, it giveth understanding unto the simple.

For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

Silent prayer that God will fulfil his promise and bless his word, closed by repeating the following Bible prayer:

ALL.—Let my cry come near before thee, O Lord; give me understanding according to thy word. Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word. My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes. My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness. Let thine hand help me; for I have chosen thy precepts.

Singing, No. 72, "Holy Bible, book divine."

SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

Seek ye out of the book of the Lord, and read.

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of me.

The holy scriptures . . . are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein.

THE LIVING WORD

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made.

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

DAY OF REST AND GLADNESS

Singing, No. 188, "O day of rest."

Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy.

Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work.

But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God:

In it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates.

For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day.

Wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it.

If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable; and shalt honor him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Silent prayer that all may be in the Spirit on the Lord's day, closed by all repeating the following Bible prayer:

ALL.—Cleanse thou me from secret faults. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

LORD'S DAY WORSHIP

This is the day which the Lord hath made.

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths.

I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go into the house of the Lord.
I went with them to the house of God

with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.

Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together. Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord, and to seek the Lord of hosts: I will go also.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

ALL. — Holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, forever.

THE RESURRECTION STORY

(To be read by all in unison.)

In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

Ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

"HE EVER LIVETH"

Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us.

Wherefore he is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

glory."*

prayer.*

AN EVERLASTING KINGDOM

Yet have I set my kingdom upon my holy hill of Zion.

And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages should serve him.

THY KINGDOM COME

Missionary

His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away.

And his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

THE BLESSEDNESS OF THE COM- ING KINGDOM

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord.

And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth:

And he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

ALL. — They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

And there were great voices in heaven saying,

The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign forever and ever.

And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying,

Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him.

ALL. — Go ye ther fore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you:

And, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

Singing, No. 206, "America the Beautiful."

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee:

He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them.

Praise ye the Lord.

ALL. — Who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thine excellency!

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

A HYMN FOR AMERICA

(To be read responsively, or may be sung to the tune of "Old Hundred.")
O God, beneath thy guiding hand

Our exiled fathers crossed the sea;
And when they trod the wintry strand,

With prayer and psalm they worshipped thee.

Thou heardest well pleased the song,
the prayer;

Thy blessing came; and still its power

Shall onward through all ages bear

The memory of that holy hour.

Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God

Came with those exiles o'er the waves;

And where their pilgrim feet have trod,

The God they trusted guards their graves.

A LITTLE LESSON IN CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP

ALL. — Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

Singing, "God bless our native land." (Music, No. 208,)

(A prayer-hymn to be sung with devotional feeling.)

God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do thou our country save
By thy great might.

For her our prayers shall rise
To God, above the skies;
On him we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To thee aloud we cry,
God save the state.

Reading No. 24

Who hath woe? who hath sorrow?
who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

They that tarry long at the wine:
they that go to seek mixed wine.

ALL.—Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder.

Singing, No. 133, "Yield not to temptation."

ABSTINENCE FOR OUR OWN SAKES

Be not drunk with wine. Be not among wine-bibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh.

For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

ALL.—Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

TEMPERANCE SERVICE

FOR THE SAKE OF OTHERS

None of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

Let us not judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

The kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

He that in these things serveth
Christ is acceptable to God, and is approved of men.

Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

For meat destroy not the work of
God. It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

Singing, No. 79, "Where is my boy to-night?"

MIZPAH

The Lord watch between me and thee when we are absent one from another.

BENEDICTION

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee:
the Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.
